Registration Form: 2017 Sisters In Spirit Vigils

October 4th is a day when we honour the lives of missing and murdered Indigenous women and girls, support grieving families, and provide opportunities for healing. The violence experienced by Indigenous women and girls in Canada is a national tragedy. United, we will demand continued action on an issue that impacts us all.

Completed forms can be faxed to 613-722-7687 or submitted by email to reception@nwac.ca

Is this your first year organizing a SIS Vigil?	Yes No
In September, you will receive a kit that will include draft speaking notes and (50) Sisters In Spirit buttons to distribute at your event. You also have a choice of receiving (50) SIS Flags or (50) SIS Balloons. Please select which additional items you'd like to receive.	<input type="checkbox"/> SIS Flags (50) OR <input type="checkbox"/> SIS Balloons (50)
You can request additional quantities and, if available, we may be able to provide them to you. Please indicate your estimated numbers with your request here. (Please note that there may not be additional quantities available.)

We are excited to provide support to help you host your vigil but are not capable of providing financial assistance, including event insurance and city permit fees. These fees are normally waived for advocacy events. Because we do not have permission from every family, NWAC cannot provide you with the names or photos of missing and/or murdered Indigenous women or girls. The life stories, names, and images that we do have permission to use are available on the NWAC website at <http://www.nwac.ca/policy-areas/violence-prevention-and-safety/sisters-in-spirit/life-stories/>.

On behalf of the Native Women's Association of Canada (NWAC), thank you for registering your SIS Vigil!

You will receive a confirmation email shortly.
